

Oh Hell No.

That's what's been on my mind all morning. And what I mean when I say that is Oh Hell No, fear will not have it's way with me today. I'm not saying Oh Hell No in opposition to any man, any person, any place or anything. As I said on Sunday, no weapon formed against me shall prosper, beloved. There is a divine appointment that we have said yes to as a collective consciousness. Feel your feelings. Do your process but understand feelings only last for 90 seconds. Let the wave move through you but affirm the name and nature of life as whole, as holy.

There is a divine appointment that the country we stand upon, The United States of America, has said yes to and perhaps now is the time. This is the wave of consciousness that will call forward meaningful conversations that thus far we've had an unwillingness to have. There are those among us that do not feel heard, do not feel seen. Don't let a narrative about hate predominate your thought form. You are here to be a transcendent power of and for love. All things work together for good. Believe that.

I am thinking today of the power and practice of discipline, of the power and practice of keeping your mind right, fasting from the negative and feasting on the affirmative. So let me bring your attention to that which have I've been in practice with this week. In a book titled "The Science of Mind," written by a brilliant philosopher, he writes "This tendency can be changed through constant effort and a determined persistency of purpose."

This tendency that the mind has to get fixated on fear can be changed through constant effort and a determined persistency of purpose. So you can seduced right here and right now to think that you are at the effect of the circumstances and conditions around you but understand today is a high calling for you. You are a mighty manifestor of power. You are a beloved being of love and truth. You are not here to be victim to a false evidence that appears real, false evidence of separation. Do not get seduced into that one.

He goes on to say, "Collective unconscious contains a record of all human events that have ever transpired. We are all more or less subject to this collective thought since it acts as a powerful suggestion in the mind. The sum total of all erroneous human belief binds until the individual mentally lifts himself up above the law of averages into the higher law of spiritual individualism."

You are the one that has been called. You are the one that has been called to lift up out of the law of averages, the total sum of fear and say No! Hell No! I say no to that! Love is the power and presence that moves me. Love is the power and presence that speaks me. No thing can come opposing that thought form and have power here. So beloved, keep your mind right this day. Beloved, stay focused with constant effort, feasting on the affirmative and fasting from the negative. All things work together for good. Believe that. I'll see you Sunday morning. 10 am. Central Standard Time. Bodhi Spiritual Center.org/livestream or in Chicago at 1012 N. Noble.

Be there to fast from the negative and feast on the affirmative. It is your divine appointment. The time is now. You are the one.

Peace and many blessings.
